Deb Kornegay, RACC

Shayla Worley, from Orlando Metro, was named to the Pan Am team training squad. Before that Shayla was on the USA vs. Great Britain team in Belfast.

Shayla was second All Around, 1st on bars and made finals on vault and floor. Shayla had the highest vault score on the first day of competition, but a decision was made to only do finals on bars where she won a gold medal. She brought home two gold's (team and bars) and one silver medal for second All Around.

Due to an injury at the American Cup in the beginning of March, Jana Bieger, from Bieger International, was not able to compete until June. After her surgery (now 8 weeks ago) she is on her way to recovery and will hopefully be able to compete at the Classics (Battle Creek, MI) and the Championships at San Jose, CA in August. Jana's Mom and coach, Andrea Bieger, was chosen by the U. S. Olympic Committee as Coach of the Year 2006/2007 for Gymnastics.

Olivia Courtney from Orlando Metro qualified to championships of the USA at the Classic in June.

Rheagan Courville from Elite Gymnastics competed in Houston in June at the Classic. She finished 2nd AA out of 19 gymnasts and won Beam. She also qualified to the Visa National Championship in August.

Sarah Persigner from Southeastern Gymnastics also qualified to Championships in August.

Also competing at American Challenge/Classic Competition in June from Region 8:

Kennedy Baker	GymStars
Stephani Canizaro	GymStars
Lillian Hardin	Southeastern
Kimberly Jacobs	Superior
Jenna Rachels	Gymnastix
Morgan Smith	Brandy Johnson's
